Junior Lifeguard Program

Dear parent or guardian:

The Imperial Beach Junior Lifeguard Program annually receives funding available to give financial aid to those who are challenged by our tuition costs. It gives those individuals the opportunity to participate in the Junior Lifeguard Program. If your household income is equivalent to or less than the amounts on the income scale below then you may apply for financial aid for your child's participation in the program.

- ☐ Household is defined as a group of related or non-related individuals who are living as one economic unit and sharing living expenses.
- ☐ Living expenses include rent, clothes, food, hospital bills, and the like.

Foster children who are the legal responsibility of the welfare agency or court may be eligible regardless of your income.

Income includes:

- ☐ All earnings from work; wages, salaries, tips, strike benefits, income from private business.
- ☐ Unemployment Compensation, Workers' Compensation.
- ☐ Public Assistance Payments.
- ☐ Alimony and Child Support Payments.
- ☐ Pensions, Supplemental Security Income, Retirement Payments, Social Security.
- ☐ Disability Benefits, Interest, Dividends, Investments, Trusts, Regular compensations from persons not living in the household, Royalties, etc.

The IBJG income guidelines are picked from the South Bay Union School District 2012-2013 Free and Reduced Meal Program. The guidelines are as follows:
